

Markus Schifferl, born 1977, is a partner of zeiler.partners Attorneys at Law. His principal areas of practice include international arbitration and corporate / commercial litigation.

He has acted as arbitrator, counsel and secretary to the arbitral tribunal in around 40 arbitrations, among others under the ICC, UNCITRAL and Vienna Rules. Markus regularly acts as party representative in corporate and commercial proceedings before Austrian courts.

Markus received his legal education at the University of Graz (Mag.iur. 2002), Sciences-Po Paris, University College London (LL.M in Dispute Resolution 2004) and the University of Vienna (Dr.iur. 2006).

Markus is fluent in German (native) and English.